

Personal Data Protection Policy

1. Information rights and express consent

DMS Down is a trademark of society Digital Multi soft Corp. and owner of the website <http://www.dmsdown.com> Legal Information Digital Multi Soft Corp. is an IBC of Belize registered with the number 120,629 The data protection policy governs access and use of DMS Down, website that make available to Internet users interested in the site's services and content (hereafter "Users").

According to what is set forth in Data Protection Regulations, Digital Multi Soft Corp, as owner of the Website for Belize of its label DMS Down, informs the User that files containing personal data of users and customers have been created by DMS Down, who accepts responsibility for the files, dully filed with the corresponding public entity.

TRANSFERS. DMS Down does not sell or rent its users' personal data to third parties with commercial purposes without the users' prior consent. However, DMS Down is enabled to disclose personal data in order to (i) fulfill a legal requirement, (ii) demand the fulfillment of our policies, (iii) answer claims regarding the breach or protection of any third party's rights or its property or security, in the event they are affected by advertisements or contents. DMS Down is enabled, as well, to share or transfer your personal information to:

To that end, the User expressly permits DMS Down to transfer its personal data to the sole purposes specified in the Privacy Policy.

2. Purpose

DMS Down collects information concerning users who register via the web form available on the Digital Multi Soft's websites for the following reasons:

- o Creation of a community if users interested on Digital Multi Soft software, where they can share with other users their opinions and favorite programs of our society.
- o To provide users' opinion about our computer programs, through forums or any other electronic mean.
- o To inform the Users about anything related to our software.
- o To study and analyze information provided by the Users in order to evaluate new trends or services.
- o To share and send contents and opinions about our software.

3. Mandatory or optional nature of the information provided by the User and reliability of the information

The User must complete the fields specified with an asterisk (*) in the registration form, as they are strictly necessary to respond to its request. The filling of the other fields is voluntary. The User guarantees that the personal information provided is true and agrees to inform DMS Down of any changes to the same.

The User guarantees that the personal information provided is exact and up to date and reflects the User's current status. The User is responsible for keeping his or her information up to date at all times. The User is responsible for any mistake or error in the data provided, and shall be liable for any damage deriving from said errors, as regards DMS Down or third parties, by virtue of using DMS Down services.

4. Privacy Control

The User, through his or her personal menu, will be allowed to choose and modify the desired privacy level regarding the personal data provided to DMS Down. To that end, the User shall choose one of the following profiles, according to his or her interest:

5. User Consent

By filling of the form and sending his or her personal data, the User declares to have read and expressly accepted the legal terms, and grants his or her consent to the automated handling of his or her details, according with the purposes being informed and services provided by DMS Down.

Moreover, the User expressly consents that his or her opinions and the contents provided by him or her are handled by DMS Down to the indicated purposes.

6. Information provided by minors

Users older than fourteen years old are able to register into DMS Down website without their parents' or tutors' prior consent.

In the event the User is a minor under fourteen, their parents' or tutors' prior consent is required for the handling of the minor's personal data.

The minor will be never asked about other members of the family's professional or economical situation, nor their privacy.

If you are a minor under fourteen and you have acceded to this Website without letting your parents know, please do not register as a User.

7. Electronic communications

By completing and submitting an electronic form to DMS Down Users expressly consent to receiving bulletins concerning the most relevant news, innovations, and information regarding the website Security.

DMS Down informs Users that it has adopted the technical and organizational measures laid down by law, to protect their personal data and to prevent it from being altered, lost, handled or accessed without authorization, bearing in mind the status of the technology, nature of the data saved and the risks to which they are exposed, in accordance with all the regulations in force.

8. Spam

DMS Down does not use Spamming and only handles data provided by the Users through electronic forms found on the Website or via email messages.

9. Right to Acces, Correct and Cancel Data

The User is entitled to access this information, correct it if there were mistakes, and de-register from DMS Down.

Users can exercise these rights via the website's configuration menu send an e-mail with "unsubscribe" Or through our e-mail: info@digitalmultisoft.com indicating the reference matter.

Personal data processing, as well as commercial e-communications, are according with the in force regulations.

10. Modification of the Data Protection Policy

DMS Down reserves the right to modify this policy to adapt it to future legislative or case law developments.

11. Applicable Law

Unless a specific local regulation sets forth the contrary, the Data Protection Policy and the rest of the Legal Conditions concerning the website are governed by Belize law.

12. Questions regarding this Policy

Any doubt or question related to this Personal Data Protection Policy can be sent by e-mail to info@digitalmultisoft.com